Congressman Says Tragedy Was Glossed

Oregon Lawmaker 'Not Satisfied' With Reforms, Transfers

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Walter Norblad R-Ore. accused the Marine Corps today of going too easy on the officers in taking disciplinary action for the "death march" at the Parris Island, S.C., training center.

He particularly charged the corps with "glossing over" the responsibility of the immediate superior officers of the assistant drill instructor who led six marine recruits to their deaths in swampy Ribbon Creek during the night of April 8.

NORBLAD FIRED the charges in a letter to Maj. Gen. Randolph McCullough, Marine Corps commander, who this week ordered a series of sweeping reforms and disciplinary moves in the wake of the tragedy which shocked the nation.

The assistant drill instructor, Staff Sgt. Matthew C. McKee, was charged with being "under the influence of alcohol" when he ordered the disciplinary night march. He will be court-martialed on four charges, including manslaughter.

IN ADDITION, Pate ordered the transfer of the Parris Island commander and other officers, named a congressional medal of honor winner to ride herd on all Marine Corps recruit training, and launched an "extraordinary" reorganization of the whole training system.

Rep. Paul Cunningham (R-Ia.) said yesterday he thought some officers should share the manslaughter charges lodged against the sergeant.

NORBLAD, LIKE Cunningham a member of the House Armed Services Committee, wrote Pate that the "time-honored military maneuver of transferring officers in circumstances which this certainly does not satisfy me."

"It seems evident that the Company commander has a very major responsibility to know exactly the caliber and actions of the sergeants under his immediate command and to be in fairly constant touch with their activities," Norblad said.

This may be the last time I have my paper printed by the Desert Magazine Press, at Palm Desert. It is all owing to Randall Henderson. You see I was looking over the chases for a final check of this edition (reading backwards like you do type), when Randall turned the key locking the chases, tightening it up for the press. Then the phone rang in the office, Randall left—was gone over two hours—I yelled and bawled but to no avail—you can't make much noise when your whisks are locked into 200 lbs of lead.

I find when I tell lies, folks don't care just so's I am sincere.—H.O.

Life Magazine Gives Big Play to Village Area

Palm Springs and surrounding area has taken over the May 7 issue of Life Magazine, on the newsstands today, including the cover.

Featured are the Robert McCulloch home at Thunderbird Country Club, five pages with 10 pictures; the Congressional campaign of Jacqueline Cochran Odum, three pages with seven pictures, and a two-page advertisement featuring the Mt. San Jacinto area.

The cover picture is of the Palm Springs Debs, a group of local high school girls who are aiding the Chamber of Commerce in its publicity work. In the McCulloch house, title of the article on this feature is "Push-Button Paradise."

Among the pictures of Mrs. Cochran's campaigning is one of her arriving at Palm Springs airport, where she is being met by Mary Hurrell on horseback.

Deadlocked Arms Group Votes to End London Talk

LONDON (AP)—The five-power disarmament subcommittee voted unanimously today to break off its deadlocked talks.

The delegates from the United States, Britain, France, the Soviet Union and Canada will hold a final session tomorrow and then toss the unsettled question of arms and troops back to the United Nations, official sources said.

Informed sources said the decision to end the present talks was unanimous. They were a continuation of discussions that have been going on for several years without success.

The conferees are members of a subcommittee of the UN Commission on Disarmament who have tried repeatedly to bridge East-West differences on arms controls.

Small Test Bomb to be Set Off

KWAJALEIN (AP)—The 1956 nuclear test series opens tomorrow with the explosion of a small atomic warhead off Eniwetok, weather permitting.

Fifteen newsmen and 21 civil defense officials will witness the test opener as unofficial observers. They flew here today from Honolulu en route to Bikini to see America's first H-bomb air drop scheduled for May 8.

That shot is still on the schedule with no delay in sight. However, test officials decided to give newsmen a "bonus shot."

Tomorrow's shot will be a small atomic device in the kiloton range. That means its power is equal to only a few thousand tons of TNT.

The big shot May 8 will equal several million tons of TNT.

Officials refuse to disclose the nature of the opening shot. Presumably it is a small caliber warhead for anti-aircraft and battle-field missiles or other launchers. It will most likely be exploded from a distant pier.

Hotels Urged to Refuse Easter Juvenile Groups

Cooperation of all member hotels would aid greatly in solving the youth influx into the Village during Easter Week, Mrs. Adele Colgan, president, said following a meeting of the board of directors of the Hotel and Apartment Association this week.

Letters are being sent to each member, asking that large groups of juveniles, even though they might have one or two chaperones, be refused admittance. Directors asked that juveniles be accompanied by parents and requested that hotel owners and managers cooperate with this policy to reduce the noise and general commotion caused by the thousands of Easter Week teenage visitors.

In addition, directors asked that the Police Department establish roadblocks during Easter Week to discourage teenagers of nearby towns from coming to the Village, where there already are a large number of high school and college students here.

In other action, the directors heard a report by Harry Paisley that definite dates be established for seasons. His suggestions, not fully accepted by the directorate, were: Winter, Dec. 1 to May 1; Spring, May 1 to July 1; Summer, July 1 to Oct. 1, and Fall, Oct. 1 to Dec. 1.

Dag Reports 5-Way Cease Fire Agreements

JERUSALEM, Israeli Sector (AP)—United Nations Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld reported today that he has won cease fire agreements among Israel and its four Arab neighbors.

In a preliminary report to U.N. headquarters released in New York, Hammarskjöld said the cease fire agreements include reservations for self-defense by the nations involved.

The report was filed from here yesterday. He planned to wind up his successful peace mission to the Middle East today with a series of conferences designed to wrap up loose ends. He was expected back in New York this weekend.

Confesses Killing Over Finances

EL MONTE (AP)—The body of a 30-year-old mother was found nude and brutally beaten Wednesday night in high weeds at the end of a "lovers lane" area.

Sheriff's deputies several hours later booked the victim's husband on suspicion of murder. The woman, Mrs. Eddy Allen Foster Shriver, was identified after L. F. G. Hedrick remembered a missing person report.

Hedrick said Donald Shriver, 24, admitted the slaying when officers arrived at his home here to inform him that his wife was dead. Shriver told officers he killed his wife, mother of four by a previous marriage, during an argument over finances on April 27.

PUC Opens Hearing on Service Irks

Hardy Asks For More Complaints Against Companies

Erratic growth of the City of Palm Springs and surrounding area was cited today by Fred MacGougan, superintendent of the California Water and Telephone Company, as one of the reasons why it has been difficult for the local company to forecast needed growth of company facilities.

MacGougan was the first witness to be called by the companies in their rebuttal to "poor service" before the Public Utilities Commission at a hearing today in the city hall.

CITING BUILDING permits in the city which fluctuated over a period of 10 years from $8 million to $3 million, MacGougan said that inability to forecast the rapid growth of the past two years has found the company lacking in "upgrade service," ie, changing from four or six party line system to private lines.

He reported the company has on order only 91 requests for stations (telephones), but has on record 1099 upgrade orders.

At the end of this year, there will be 10,674 stations in operation in the area of the Palm Springs Exchange, with an investment of plants and service of $2,949,552, he added.

THE TELEPHONE companies started their presentation at 11 a.m., with Attorney Claude Rosenberg of the California Water and Telephone Company, in charge.

The companies this afternoon and tomorrow will disclose to the Commission results of investigation of complaints voiced at the previous hearing, and what action has been taken or is contemplated. After that will follow presentation of five plans for extended service by each company.

The meeting started at 10 a.m. with Commissioner Rex Hardy asking for additional complaints against the two companies, California Water and Telephone, and Coachella Valley Home Telephone and Telegraph.

Four witnesses, all subscribers of the Coachella Valley firm, appeared.

Frank H. Pletcher of Palm Desert testified that there was an extreme lack of courtesy extended to subscribers, and cited "overcharges, bad hearing, and poor response to calls by operators."

LILLY HOFFMAN of the La Quinta Chamber of Commerce said that 65 per cent of the Chamber members were in favor of extended service to the Palm Springs area. Warner Gilmore of La Quinta Hotel, protested the "poor service."

Former Model Calls Today's Models 'Anemic, Emaciated, Flat-Chested'

CHICAGO (AP)—Blonde Patricia Vance, head of her own model agency, says New York's "high fashion" models are "anemic, emaciated and flat-chested."

Hollywood, she said, goes to the other extreme with the 40-inch bust and "flamboyant sexiness."

Comely Mrs. Vance is a former New York model herself. With the Powers agency she often averaged six assignments a day.

"But I was never a scarecrow," she said, and you can believe it.

"It's pathetic what some of those girls go through to keep their jobs. Like having only a raw egg and black coffee for lunch. Some of them are making $500

Chotiner Denies Using Nixon's Name for Aid

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate investigators today looked into links between Vice President Richard M. Nixon's campaign manager and a military uniform maker blacklisted by the government.

The Senate investigating subcommittee called Murray M. Chotiner, of Beverly Hills, Calif., Nixon's longtime political advisor and 1952 manager, to ask what services he performed in mid 1953 for a $5,000 fee from uniform maker Herman Kravitz of Atlantic City, N. J.

Kravitz testified April 25 that he hired Chotiner to look over a factory site in Los Angeles. But he invoked the Fifth Amendment when asked if Chotiner intervened at the Justice Department for him at another matter. Kravitz at the time was charged with misappropriating government-furnished fur on a uniform contract. He later was convicted and fined $5,000.

Chotiner was asked whether he had ever used Nixon's name in his contacts with the Justice Department or any other government agency.

"Never," he replied.

Chotiner also said that he had written the Army Judge Advocate General's office for information on Abram's claim against the government and had spoken to two Justice Department lawyers about it.

Chotiner telegraphed the subcommittee earlier that he could not reveal what he did for Kravitz without violating the secrecy of the lawyer-client relationship.

The subcommittee promptly subpoenaed him.

Kravitz' accountant, Murray M. Kimmel of Monticello, N. Y., testified earlier that he heard Chotiner was hired because he was "influential" and experienced in handling cases involving theft of government property.

Children Playing in Bataan Cave are Buried Alive

MANILA, P.I. (AP)—Six children were buried alive Wednesday when a seashore cave in which they were playing collapsed on the Island of Bataan.

The victims were all boys between the ages of nine and 16. A seventh was saved when he left the cave before the collapse to wash some dirt out of his eyes.

HOUSE GROUP APPROVES IKE'S $33 BILLION DEFENSE BUDGET

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Appropriations Committee today approved with only "minor reductions" President Eisenhower's new $33.6 billion defense budget. The committee called it generally adequate but not big enough to keep ahead of Russia's growing airpower.

The bill approved by the committee would appropriate about a half billion less than the President requested. The committee said the bill would support total defense outlays of about $35.9 billion in fiscal 1957 increasing the strength of all three services.

The committee said the new military budget is geared to new weapons, increased air power and greater emphasis on research. All told, more than $5.5 billion will be spent on military research and development.

As usual, the Air Force got the biggest share, a total of $15.4 billion, compared to $14.7 this year. The President asked for $15.6 billion. The committee said its cuts won't interfere with expansion as planned.

The Navy got $9.9 billion, compared to $9.1 billion this year. The President asked for $10 billion.

The Navy's share will provide an active fleet expanded from 985 to 1005 ships, with 23 new ships to be built. Construction will include 13 guided missile ships, one of them atom powered, six atomic submarines and advance work for a nuclear-powered carrier.

The Army got just under $7.5 billion, compared to $7.3 billion this year.

Representatives of cities in Riverside County voted last night not to share sales tax receipts with the county, and decided to set up a committee of one person from each city to meet with the supervisors to discuss the matter.

2 Truman Aides Ordered to Face Tax Fraud Trial

WASHINGTON (AP)—Chief Justice Earl Warren yesterday refused to delay the conspiracy trial of two Truman administration officials, Matthew J. Connelly and T. Lamar Caudle.

Connelly, who was Mr. Truman's appointment secretary, and Caudle, former head of the Justice Department's tax division, are scheduled to go on trial in St. Louis Monday on charges of conspiring to defraud the government on tax matters.

Indicted with them was Harry I. Schwimmer, former Kansas City, Mo., attorney. All three had sought a postponement so they could appeal ruling of lower court judges who refused to transfer their case to the District of Columbia Federal Court.

The defendants argued they do not have money enough to prepare an adequate defense in St. Louis and that "inflammatory publicity" would deprive them of a fair trial there.

Library to Stay Open Indefinitely

Palm Springs Branch Library located on South Palm Canyon Drive will be kept open as long as the demand warrants, directors of Welwood Murray Memorial Library decided yesterday.

It is anticipated that the branch unit will remain open at least until the close of school.

France At Last Accepts United Armed Germany

About half the total cut proposed by the committee amounted to a bookkeeping saving.

The Army wanted $228 million to substitute for marks it had planned to spend in Germany but which it said it might not get from the German government. The committee said maybe the marks still will be forthcoming and denied the request.

County Cities Reject Sharing Sales Tax Yield

Representatives of cities in Riverside County voted last night not to share sales tax receipts with the county, and decided to set up a committee of one person from each city to meet with the supervisors to discuss the matter.

All cities except Indio were represented at the meeting at Banning, and its absence was due to a city council meeting there. Main purpose was to discuss a proposal made by county supervisors that a committee be formed of representatives of the cities, supervisors and a disinterested person to discuss the amount of sales tax collected within incorporated areas which should go to the county.

Consensus of the cities was that a committee of this nature "would not be in the best interest" of the cities. This was reiterated by Richard Carpenter, executive director of the League of California Cities, who was a guest at the meeting.

Motion to set up a committee to represent the cities, which might develop into a permanent organization, was made by Councilman Jerry Sanborn of Palm Springs. Others from here were Director of Finance Shelby Langford, and Councilmen Leonard Wolf and Frank Miller.

Next meeting, which will be held prior to any discussions with county supervisors, was set for Thursday, May 17, at Banning.

Paris, Bonn End Long Suspicions

Reconciliation Made Just Ahead Of Crucial NATO Parley

PARIS (AP)—France and Germany reached "full agreement" today on a French plan to link world disarmament to the reunification of the split German nation.

The agreement was reached at an hour-and-a-half meeting this morning between Premier Guy Mollet and Foreign Minister Christian Pineau with West German Foreign Minister Heinrich Von Brentano.

The decision swept away German suspicions over French intentions on the eve of a crucial meeting of the NATO Council at which plans will be discussed to broaden the alliance's purely military nature into political and economic fields.

THE FRANCO-GERMAN session was one of a series of meetings between the individual western foreign ministers preliminary to the council gatherings Friday and Saturday.

In another of these preliminary sessions, Secretary of State John Foster Dulles and British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd conferred at lunch to discuss an alignment of British and American views at the council meetings in the next two days.

Mollet, Pineau, and Brentano emerged smiling from their conference for lunch.

"We have reached perfect agreement on the problems of German unification and disarmament," Pineau said.

THE FRENCH PLAN linking world disarmament and German reunification was a major attempt to break the East-West deadlock. It was roughly midway between Anglo-American and Soviet proposals.

Toastmasters GOC Program Set for Tuesday

Radioactive fallout — the new threat to America — will be the subject of a free public program to be presented at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, in Frances Stevens School Auditorium.

This program is sponsored jointly by the Ground Observer Corps and the Palm Springs Toastmasters, and forms a part of the sky-watchers' regular monthly meeting for May.

The program is based on materials produced by the Federal Civil Defense Administration and will include a filmstrip as well as discussion and pamphlets.

Subjects to be covered include the effects of radioactive fallout from atomic or hydrogen explosions, how civil defense plans to meet this threat, and what can be done to protect oneself and families from it.

Civil Defense Director Robert W. Peterson invited all persons, especially Skywatchers, teachers and others responsible for leading groups of people in any emergency, to attend this program.

With the development of the H-bomb, radioactive fallout is a hazard even for people hundreds of miles away from the point of explosion, he emphasized.

BOB DAVENPORT, star fullback of the 1955 UCLA grid team, will make two appearances in Palm Springs this week, speaking to the Boys Club Friday night, and to a Coachella Valley youth rally at the Palm Springs Community Church Saturday evening. Davenport is chairman of the "Youth-for-Christ" movement at the university.

Civic Chorus Bach Concerts Acclaimed; Season Ended

Climaxing a season which brought to Palm Springs some of the world's finest choral music, instrumental music, and music written for solo voices, the Palm Springs Civic Chorus, under the fine direction of Harry Tomlinson, presented the long anticipated Bach Festival to a select audience of enthusiastic listeners.

The instrumental concert of Bach selections was presented at the Jewish Community Center and featured three gifted and charming youth musicians: Heidi Elfenbein, pianist; Alice Schoenfeld, violinist; and Elenore Schoenfeld, cellist.

With delicacy of touch and with gentle interpretation Miss Elfenbein first played Bach's Fifth French Suite, a charming work consisting of a group of dance rhythms, ranging from the Allemande to the gay Gigue. The pianist, sure of her interpretation and of her memory, at no time faltered and ended her part of the program with two melodious movements from the Partita in Bb major. The enthusiastic applause which paid tribute to her performance indicated the pleasure this promising player afforded the audience.

ALICE AND ELENORE Schoenfeld, two sisters who, with their musician father and mother, have come to America from Germany, showed all the marks of brilliant and accomplished musicians.

Alice Schoenfeld, who handles her violin with masculine virility, presented the seven movements of the Partita in E Major. This is an exacting piece of music which requires both skill and understanding in the performing. Miss Schoenfeld showed both attributes. Aside from the beauty of tone, the truthfulness of her ear, the violinist showed a mastery technique, especially in the subtlety of her vibrato.

Her sister, Elenore Schoenfeld, handled the cello as though it were an integral part of her. She made her cello sing through the Arioso in C Major; the organ accompaniment was played in a skillful and beautiful manner by Christine Tomlinson.

Palm Springs audiences have become accustomed to expect only the best from Mrs. Tomlinson and in her accompaniment to this cello piece the audience received what it expected to Elenore Schoenfeld interprets Bach with a profundity of understanding seldom met with in cello players. Aside from the musicianship of the two sisters, their dignified and stately appearance was an added delight.

AS THE FINAL performance in the Bach Festival — presented at the unacoustical Cahulla School auditorium — Director Tomlinson chose the monumental and difficult Mass in B Minor. This Mass which is more an oratorio than Mass presents a difficult problem for any choral group.

It is pleasing to know that Palm Springs Civic Chorus acquitted itself with honors. Except for a rather weak tenor section, the chorus sang with spirit and feeling. Tomlinson's judicious cuts and rearrangements suited the size of his chorus and gave to the performance a unity not too easy to attain.

Of the four soloists, Alex Hammond, bass, had the richest voice. His phrasing was excellent and his understanding apt. Evelyn Spikre, soprano; Reba Mason, alto; and Mary Raphael, soprano gave to their parts the tenderness the music requires.

Once again Christine Tomlinson, ably accompanied the singers.

Palm Springs owes a debt of gratitude to the Civic Chorus and its earnest director, Harry Tomlinson. The singers, who come from all walks of life, have spent many hours of labor and love to bring to this community the finest music the world has ever known.

One can only hope that director Tomlinson will continue to offer these adult programs next season and that the community will realize the treasure which is being offered it by fully supporting this praiseworthy group.

Supervisors Back CVAPC in Road Route

Supervisor George Berkey told county supervisors this week that previous action by the board and by the Coachella Advisory Planning Committee to have the Bureau of Public Roads make surveys, and consider possible and feasible routes for a road to close the distance between Joshua Tree National Monument and Indio, has failed.

Berkey said a new move has been started by the advisory planning committee, and asked that the committee's request that the board adopt a resolution urging action, be given favorable consideration. The supervisors instructed county counsel to prepare such a resolution.

According to the committee there are now two entrances to the park, one 76 miles from Indio via Highways 60-70-99, Morongo Valley and 29 Palms, and the other 27 miles east of Indio. The latter must be traveled an additional 11 miles to reach the scenic area.

An entrance through Fan Palm (upper Thousand Palms), Pushawalla or Berdoo Canyons into Pleasant Valley (where a Monument road now exists), would make the Monument more accessible to the thousands of inhabitants and additional thousands of visitors from all over the United States who annually winter in the Coachella Valley and the Palm Springs area, according to the planning committee.

By MICHAEL HELM
(Editor's Note: This is the second in a series of four articles by members of the four Little League teams, telling why they like to play, and why other boys should sign up to play at their schools this week. First practice is Saturday morning at the Polo Grounds. Michael is a member of the Junior Police squad.)

I like the Little League because it taught me how to get along with my fellow players. It has taught me good sportsmanship and how to be a good loser.

In Little League I have learned many of the fundamentals of baseball that will help me out later on.

Thrifty Lassie Finds Many 'Thrifty Items' for Mother

Surrounded by a band of puzzled husbands, sons and daughters, the Thrifty Lassie made a trip through the Palm Springs Thrifty Drug Store today and offered a number of feminine suggestions for Mother's Day gifts. By purchasing gift items now shoppers will avoid the inevitable rush before the May 13 tribute to American mothers.

Among the standard gift suggestions available at Thrifty Drug Stores are cosmetics and notions such as bath sets, nail polish sets, jeweled and decorated lipsticks and compacts, and many other "special" things mother might not buy for herself.

The complete perfume and cologne selection at Thrifty includes all the popular summer fragrances. Many of these are offered in money-saving combination packs and all will be gift wrapped on request.

Hosiery is an everyday item, but any mother would appreciate a box or two of the latest summer shades in Thrifty's ultra-sheer hosiery. The new stretch nylons are also available in every weight and shade.

"You can't have too much costume jewelry," the Thrifty Lassie reminded. Mother would enjoy any one of the dozens and dozens of new summer designs in white or pastel to dress up her basic outfits.

For a really special gift that will last, Thrifty's Mother's Day stock includes radios, phonographs, clock-radios that wake you up to music, electric appliances such as waffle irons, deep fat fryers, steam or dry irons, and dozens of other things which would make Mother's work around the house easier and more pleasant.

With summer just around the corner, the Thrifty Lassie included many patio suggestions in her gift list. These include small barbecue outfits, lawn furniture, and a shiny new picnic outfit.

Mothers of all ages enjoy receiving a box of their favorite candy, and Thrifty's stock includes every conceivable type.

"If nothing on my list is just what you were thinking of for mother, a trip to your neighborhood Thrifty Drug Store and a chat with the friendly clerks might provide you with just the thing you are looking for in whatever price range you desire," the Thrifty Lassie said.

Smith as district appraising supervisor at a salary of $410 per month was approved by county supervisors this week, therefore virtually assuring continued operation of the county assessor's branch office in Indio. Smith now heads the Indio office as director, but has submitted his resignation because of inadequate salary. The salary range for the newly created position of district appraising supervisor is $340 to $410.

EDITOR'S CORNER

By OLIVER B. JAYNES

Federal Government

Much concern is being voiced around the country over the ruling of the United States Supreme Court which gives the Federal government dominance in the field of hiding subversion. Many people believe that the decision has repercussions which will go far beyond the subject of anti-subversive legislation.

It will be looked upon by many who have fought long and hard for state's rights as a severe blow to their cause. Moreover, the opinion has been expressed in many quarters that the decision will hinder rather than help the fight against communism in the individual states, forty-two of which have their own anti-subversive laws.

Even before this recent action by the Supreme Court there has been considerable unrest over the attempt of the Court to delegate to the Federal government power which was intended by the Constitution to be reserved for the states.

In view of this recent decision it is interesting to note that a bill has already been introduced in the House of Representatives which provides that where the Federal government legislates in any area that is also subject to state legislation, the state law shall not be nullified unless the Federal statute specifically provides — or the two statutes are so inconsistent that they could not stand together. This legislation which is sponsored by Representative Howard Smith of Virginia is designed to limit legislation by the Federal government in fields in which the states are interested in passing legislation.

It seems quite possible that the Supreme Court decision may bring to a head the political movement involving state's rights and touching upon the highly controversial field of segregation, labor, control by the Federal government of natural resources and of subversive activities.

You will see frequent references in the next few weeks to this conflict between the Federal government and the states and you will find widespread sentiment favoring the protection of state rights.

Soviet Ambition

(Crocketon Times, Crocketon, Minn.)

Meeting for its 20th Congress in Moscow, the Soviet Party laid down the current Communist line. One decision, as reported by Pravda, is to "catch up and outstrip in the shortest historical span the most highly developed capitalist countries in per capita production." Another is to "create an abundance of food for the population and raw materials for light industry."

This is in line with previous Soviet declarations. And it undoubtedly reflects the dissatisfaction of the Russian people with living standards which, by comparison with the U.S., in many respects are almost unbelievably low.

Court of Last Resort

(The Detroit News)

It has long been our conviction that no one is better qualified than the bartender to determine when a drinking man has had enough. We are pleased, therefore, to see that New York's Gov. Harriman has officially taken the same position.

Harriman vetoed a bill which would have required publicans to be positively sure a patron was intoxicated before refusing to serve him. The bartender would have to give an "apparently" intoxicated person the benefit of the doubt. Sponsors of the measure argued that bartenders were denying another drink to persons "apparently" drunk when all that was the matter with them was over-florid complexions — they weren't drunk at all.

The bartender is the sole judge of such matters in Michigan and we don't know why he shouldn't be in New York.

ROBERT S. ALLEN:

WASHINGTON — An unusual civil rights coalition is under way in the Senate.

It's being organized by Senator Hubert Humphrey, militant Democratic — Farmer — Laborite from Minnesota, and Senate Republican Leader William Knowland, Calif.

Purpose of this proposed bipartisan alliance is the enactment this year of the four-point civil rights program recommended by Attorney General Brownell with the approval of President Eisenhower.

Pooling forces on this issue was Humphrey's idea. He sought out Knowland on it.

"If Northern Republicans and Democrats will work together," said Humphrey, "I am firmly convinced that civil rights legislation can be passed at this session. I think the time is ripe to get that done in the Senate."

Knowland agreed, with a reservation. "I think it can be done," replied Knowland, "provided the legislation is moderate and in line with what the Administration favors."

That requirement was acceptable to Humphrey. He expressed satisfaction with the Administration's program, and willingness to support it. But Humphrey stressed that bipartisan backing is essential to enact the plan.

"We have got to have 16 to 18 Republican votes," he declared.

"I can promise you that a majority of the Republican senators will vote for the right kind of legislation," asserted Knowland. "If you people will get it before the Senate, we will back it."

Knowland pointed out that it's up to the Democratic to take the lead as they control the Judiciary Committee.

"We'll help you in every way we can to get the bill out of the Committee," said Knowland, "but your side will have to carry the ball. We can't do it alone."

"I fully understand," agreed Humphrey. "We've both got to do our utmost, and working together we can win. Matter of fact, I believe we will get Southern support for a moderate civil rights program. There are Southern senators who will vote for that. They are men of courage and character and ability, and I honestly think they will go along on a fair and reasonable bill."

"We Republicans will do our best to give them the chance," replied Knowland.

The measure considered acceptable by the two Senate leaders, as a "working basis" for a coalition, is the one approved last week by the House Judiciary Committee. It calls for: (1) A new civil rights division in the Justice Department; (2) empowers the Attorney General to prosecute civil rights violations; (3) bars state and local restrictions on voting; (4) creates a bipartisan commission on civil rights.

House Democratic Leader John McCormack, Mass., plans to bring this bill before the chamber for action this month.

BATTLING SATAN — Representative Daniel Flood (D., Pa.) thinks the Army isn't spending enough to fight the devil. He wants a bigger budget for that.

The Army's new budget for chaplains is $451,000. When Maj. General Patrick J. Ryan, chief of chaplains, appeared before the House Appropriations Committee, Flood expressed doubt about the adequacy of this amount.

"Seems to me, General," said Flood, "that the minuscule size of this fund must be heartening to the devil. He ought to be getting a lot of comfort out of it."

On this, Flood replied Ryan.

"It isn't very much with which "We believe we can get along

WASHINGTON REPORT

to fight the forces of evil," insisted Flood. "After all, $451,000 is hardly visible in a budget in excess of $35,000,000,000."

"If we find we need more, we will ask for it," promised Ryan. "Don't hesitate," urged Flood. "You come to me and I'll go to bat for you."

STILL INCREASING — Subsidies for the airlines are still going up.

Nothing has come of those hopeful estimates by officials of the Civil Aeronautics Board that these multi-million dollar payments would decrease. That's what they told congressional leaders during 1955 budget hearings, but those assurances aren't being borne out.

That was admitted at a private meeting by Ross Rizley, CAB chairman who has resigned to become a federal judge. He was sharply questioned by Representative John Rooney (D.N.Y.) who has long been trying to slash airline subsidies.

"From my way of seeing it," said Rooney, "the CAB's request for subsidies is larger this year than last."

"Rizley agreed, "That is probably correct."

"It is definitely correct," retorted Rooney. "Subsidies for all the carriers in the current budget are $43,237,000, and for 1957, they come to $46,406,000. That amounts to more than $3,000,000 above this year's subsidies."

Rizley conceded that was accurate.

"What I want to know," continued Rooney, "is the reason for this increase, particularly in view of the fact that last year we were assured these subsidies would be reduced. Instead, we are now asked for more money than before. That's a very strange kind of reduction."

Extensive airline expansion, Rizley explained, necessitates more subsidies.

Another sign we're now in May may be found on the sport pages. For Saturday is Derby Day. When many lose all their wages.

It may surprise you but there is one man in this Village who sincerely hopes to lose at Louisville come Saturday.

When a friend of his took off the other day for Kentucky, this Villager handed him two bucks.

When his friend asked him on which horse he wished to plunge the bet of five, this man said: "Oooh, I don't know. Let's see, I'll take a number. Bet it on No. —"

"ALL I GOT to say, said the Derby-bound pal, "is that is one hell of a way to bet and a sure way to lose."

"Oh, I don't want to win," said the Villager. "I probably will never get to a derby but I want a souvenir ticket from that race classic."

Then, as an after thought, with a sign of hope in his voice, he said:

"By the way, if No. so-and-so DOES win, I'll take the cash and maybe you'll have a losing ticket of your own to bring me."

AND THE DERBY also has Red Kenyon, Palm Springs swimming pool entrepreneur, on the well known qui vive or, as we say in English, on the hook.

Last week he overheard several people say they were going to have a pool on Saturday, May 5.

Now he knew that would take some energetic work to build a pool in a week.

But the part that bothered him was no orders were coming in. He wondered who was getting the business.

In regard to the latter, I can tell him. The longshot bettors.

COMES A COMPLAINT from a Village motorist.

"You said the other day that they had fixed that chuck-hole at Indian Avenue and Alejo Road."

"You should feel the lump on my head. I may sue you and The Sun."

"Taking your word for it, I breezed across and just about went through the top. Glad it wasn't down or I'd have been in the school yard."

"Bah to you!"

THERE ARE TWO illustrating aspects to this job of getting out these daily pieces.

There is (a) thinking up something bright and then forgetting it before you can sit down to the typewriter.

And (b) jotting it down in notes. This is also divided into two parts.

a—The notes cannot be read due to failure to take the Spenserian course seriously as a youngster and b—It doesn't seem as bright or funny if and when the notes are deciphered.

City Council may have its difficulties with the parking problem but here's a definition of a parking space which may help them. The Automotive Dealers News says a parking space is that area which disappears while you are making a U-turn.

On top of that, I read where Raymond Duncan asks: "How can children have an incentive to study when they see adults miss a question and win a Cadillac?"

TODAY'S closing thought is cribbed from Howard Lasseter: "If the Commies had as much to eat as they have to swallow, they'd be better off."

Letters to the Editor

Editor The Desert Sun:

Last week, we received a letter from one of the most respected leading citizens of Orange County—a native whose career is an integral part of that county's economic development.

We decided that our members and friends of Riverside county should have the benefit of this neighbor's candid and constructive suggestion. A copy (minus the heading and signature) is attached.

If you want further suggestions as to what to do, precisely, and where to begin, write and ask us. We have some good answers ready. Tell us at the same time what your present civic activities are, and what organizations you belong to.

There is no reason, is there, why Riverside county should be content with a standard lower than that of a neighboring county?

California Roadside Council, Inc. The letter follows:

"Just a note to call your attention to a situation which no doubt is already in your minds. At rather frequent intervals my family and myself make the trip between home and Palm Springs."

"The stretch between Banning and the junction of the Indio and Palm Springs roads, some 15 miles or more, has on each side some of the finest mountain scenery in California and this road in the winter is probably the heaviest traveled transcontinental highway. On both sides it is practically a solid mass of hotel and booze signs."

"Needless to say, it is a disgrace to Riverside county and if we have any influential members in that county, maybe they could be stirred up to do something about it."

For the past two weeks I have been hearing stories about Lee Bering, who certainly will be remembered by many in this city.

The news is a bit shocking though and many of his friends may wish to contact him or write a letter to the former dashing major of the U.S. Air Force now confined to a wheelchair in Sawtelle, California, Veterans Administration hospital. I am not sure as to the exact cause of Lee's confinement except that he is partially paralyzed.

He will be remembered as the personable young man, who, just after World War II, gathered about him a few financiers and opened what is today known as the Tennis Club now under the ownership and operation of Sam Taylor. Bering cut a mean swath in this town, easy to meet and with a host of friends when he was riding the crest of a successful wave. Later he opened a night club with his wife, but it floundered on financial shoals. The location is now known as Dave Lyons' Saddle and Siroin. Write Lee a letter. There is absolutely nothing like a letter from friends that seemingly have forgotten. But I'll bet that the vibrant Lee is not beaten by any means and will still have plenty in him to make a good life successfully.

HAD A MOST delightful chat with one Bruce (Lucky) Humberstone, motion picture director, just back from London. The chat continued on and on in company with Captain Horace Brown, husband of Marion Davies Brown. Well, it lasted so long we finally ended up at dinner in The Dunes. Top item of our conversation was that Lucky had spent "months and months in cloudy, foggy, cold London, working 18 hours a day" and that he was bone tired. But most important of all, Lucky said: "I was dreaming about coming to Palm Springs all of those dreadful days of hard, cold work and here I am."

And Captain Horace Brown who has known Humberstone for many, many years talked and talked with every word of his laced with an abundance of laughter. Wish I could report some of his stories I heard repeated between those two men — but I promised I wouldn't.

EARL WILSON:

So We Went Back Hon

ROCKFORD, O. — My home town is a proud little town with a strong affection for its school teachers.

My third grade teacher, Miss Mabel Wolfe, is retiring — after 47 years.

It was such a big civic event that I flew out for the program at "the schoolhouse." Toots Shor, my social secretary, thought I shouldn't. I'd miss the big party Jackie Gleason had to give after betting that Grace'd never marry Rainier.

"But THIS is for my third grade teacher," I told him.

"Anything to prove you got through the third grade!" he snorted.

You see in this little farming town near Toledo, Lima, Van Wert, Celina and Fort Wayne — teachers are important and respected.

It was a sentimental journey. I was met at Dayton by Publisher George Kinder of the weekly Rockford Press. We called into Piqua, home of Don Gentile and the Mills Brothers — where I was a reporter 30 years ago.

"Could I just walk around for 10 minutes?" I asked.

I peeked in at the Y.M.C.A. where I lived, and at the Eagles where I used to pick up the bowling scores. . . . In 1925 and '26 when Estelle Taylor, Libby Holman and Clara Bow were glamour girls.

"The schoolhouse" was abuzz with excitement.

"Why, there are more cars here tonight than for the basketball games!" somebody said — tribute indeed to Miss Wolfe.

And there she sat, center stage in the auditorium — gray but bright-eyed, looking too young to retire.

Near her, as co-heroines, were two other retired schoolmarm — Clara Penn, my first grade teacher, and Emma Musselman, my sixth grade teacher. . . . representing 150 years of teaching.

There were songs, speeches, the placing of a crown on Miss Wolfe's head by State Banking Superintendent Paul Henkle, a local boy.

Since she wishes to travel, I invited Miss Wolfe to New York. "I'll show you around the saloons," I said — and one minister looked daggers at me. There was even a check for Miss Wolfe.

"It won't take you to Europe and back," the master of ceremonies said, "but it'll get you out of Rockford!"

Later at "Kotler's Koffee Kup," the local Lindy's, we sat talking of the kindness of our teachers. As I was crank-telephoning to

TODAY'S SPORT PARADE

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer
Reg. U.S. Pat. Off.

NEW YORK (AP)—They say you can't beat Needles in Saturday's Kentucky Derby but, take it from Fearless Fraley, you just might scare the sew-and-sew with a hay-burner called Countermand.

The field for the rose run has more also-rans champing at the bit than the proposed heavyweight elimination tournament building up since Rocky Marciano's retirement. It's hard, actually, to see how any of them can win.

Aside from the psychopathic pony called Needles, that is.

THE CRAZY HORSE who works only when he feels like it has to be the one to beat. In the Florida Derby they buried him at the start as he got away last in the 14-horse field. He was ninth with three-eighths of a mile to go—and then walked over them all to win brilliantly and still full of run.

The big note of caution is that he toted only 117 pounds in that mile and one-eighth race. This time he'll have to match the 126 pounds being carted by every other colt in the contest.

There's a hatful of oat maulers who are well-liked. You can't overlook Calumet's Pintor Lea and Fabius; C. V. Whitney's Career Boy and Head Man; Rex Ellsworth's Terrang and such as Count Chic and No Regrets. They look like the rather checkered class of the field.

Aside from Countermand.

FOR THERE'S a hunch here that, when the late-footed Needles starts his bid, running right there with him will be Countermand. He likes that kind of a race and has been improving his finish each time out.

In the recent Blue Grass Stakes, Countermand came on for fourth. Tuesday, in the Derby Trial, he moved up to second. The next time around he just might go all the way. If the son of Greek Song and Everget is ever gonna get their and have something to sing about, this looks like a good time.

However, old Fearless must cop an alibi in advance naturally and sound a note of pessimism against his guilt-edged Derby selections.

THINGS HAVE been a little tough in the Fraley past performance chart of late years. Since picking Count Turf in 1951 he says with great modesty, I've had four stiffs in a row. Two of 'em finished fifth and two were sixth, which is consistency of a sort, anyhow.

Prior to that, though, old Fearless was really terrible. There was Burning Dream, a fat ninth; Liberty Road, an atrocious 10th; Dark Jungle, a terrifying 12th and Diavolo, a hitch-hiking home 14th.

But you've got to admit, I'm getting better.

Still and all, don't go out and hock the family pools. If Countermand has to carry more than two hucks to the post he might break down.

Besides, it would ruin the price, too.

Indians, Hemet Clash Tomorrow

Palm Springs baseballers go after win number three tomorrow when they tackle the Hemet Bulldogs in a game which could have a great bearing on the final league standings.

The Bulldogs have played two games in league competition this season, winning both, and having one game rained out. This 2-0 record puts them in second place.

The Indians are currently resting in third place a half a game behind the Bulldogs with a 2-1 record.

Vic Reyes, Charlie Brown, and Skip Martin have been the big guns at the plate for the Indians.

Lloyd Brubaker, who has pitched all three of the Indians' games will again get the nod as starting pitcher. The contest will be played at the Polo Grounds at 3:00 p.m.

INDIANS AGAIN WIN RCL NET TITLE

Undefeated in League Race Second Year

Win Over Elsinore By 8-1 Score In Season's Final

By JOHN SIMON

Palm Springs boys' tennis team completed their second consecutive undefeated season yesterday as they trounced the previously undefeated Elsinore Tigers 8-1 on the local courts to retain their league championship.

The only Tiger who was able to win was Harold Goffman who defeated Dick Blackstone in a lengthy three set match, 6-6, 6-2, 6-3, giving the Lake City squad their only point.

THE ELSINORE first doubles team of Phil Roberts and Alvin Johnson tasted defeat for the first time this season as Gary Waters and Roger Williams played excellent ball to down the Tiger combination 6-1, 6-3.

Dawson Hayward who substituted for Waters in the first singles lost downed his opponent, Bob Snider, rather easily 6-2, 6-2.

After the final match the jubilant netmen threw Coach Hammond and any innocent bystanders into the Tennis Club pool and then joined them, shoes and all, for a refreshing victory swim.

The Indians' counterparts, the girls' team, defeated the Tigers 7-2 to finish second in the league.

P.S. Swimmers in CIF Prelims at Long Beach

The CIF swimming preliminaries get underway tomorrow at Long Beach with Coach Wayland Reynolds' newly crowned Citrus Belt League champions, the Palm Springs Indians in attendance.

The local swimmers are hopeful for a good showing in this event which determines who are the best swimmers in Southern California.

The swimmers with the best six times in each event will advance to the quarter-finals to be held on Tuesday at Beverly Hills. Those who post the six top marks there will participate in the finals at Beverly Hills the following Friday.

In the varsity division, the local tankmen's hopes rest on Doug Hunt, and John Cunningham, who have compiled the best records of the Palm Springs varsity squad.

Gerry Greenfield who last year finished sixth in the C 50 yard breaststroke is a good bet to go to the finals this year.

Solons Threaten Rainier's Lead in PCL Scramble

By DON THACKREY
United Press Sports Writer

The Sacramento Solons, whose category seems to be mountain-climbing, needed only to get over Rainier today to reach the Pacific Coast League's top plateau.

The Solons came up with the right answer to Seattle's mountain-name ball club last night and took a 2-0 win. Another of the same will put the Solons in first place by a few percentage points.

San Francisco also used the whitewash brush last night and blanked Hollywood 5-0 to make a three-game gap between the league's first and second divisions.

Vancouver aided in the gap-widening project with a 5-1 triumph over San Diego while Portland was trouncing Los Angeles 8-4.

Young Bob Harrison set San Diego down with seven hits and as much as the plate as on the mound. He got three-for-three and drove in a trip of runs, two of them with a double, in addition to scoring on himself.

Bob Kerrigan was the loser as the first of three pitchers used by the Padres.

Light Heavies Sign
NEW YORK (AP)—Artie Town of New York and Phil Saxton of Elizabeth, N.J., have signed for a 10-round light heavyweight bout at Sunnyside Garden, May 10.

Rigney Hailed as NL's New Master Mind

Leads Giants To 6-5 Decision In Marathon Contest

FRED DOWN

United Press Sports Writer
Bill Rigney was hired to replace Leo Durocher as manager of the New York Giants but it looks like he's out to replace Casey Stengel as the "master manipulator" of the major leagues.

Rigney, who's a rookie pilot and therefore figures to improve with experience, did a job even Stengel would have been proud of Wednesday in guiding the Giants to a 6-5, 17-inning marathon victory over the Chicago Cubs. When it was all over, there were two new major league records set, one new National League mark and still another NL mark equalled.

The 25 players used by Rigney wiped out the old record of 24 players used by one team in a game. Manager Stan Hack threw 23 Cubs into the fray, thereby another mark of 48 players employed.

IN ADDITION, Rigney tied a National League mark by using eight pitchers and Cub third-baseman Don Hoak earned the dubious distinction of setting still another mark by striking out six times. The five-hour and 13-minute contest fell just short of the major league mark of 5:19-set in a 20-inning struggle between Boston and Brooklyn in 1940.

Hero of the weird battle was second-baseman Daryl Spencer who blasted a homer, triple and two singles in the "early innings" and finally sent the 2,389 fans home to their cold supper by delivering a sacrifice fly with the bases filled and one out in the 17th. Al Dark doubled with one out to start the rally and Willie Mays and Dusty Rhodes were walked to set up a chance for an inning-ending double play.

Rookie Joe Margoneri, seventh New York pitcher, got credit for the win although he gave way to Ruben Gomez in the 17th when he yielded a double to Clyde McCullough with two out and worked the count to 2-1 on Hoak. The count mounted to 3-2 before Gomez fanned Hoak for the last out. The victory was the third in a row for the Giants and the loss the seventh straight for the Cubs.

THE CINCINNATI REDLEGS, continuing a slugging binge in which they've hit 27 homers in 13 games this season, wallowed five Wednesday night to jolt the Brooklyn Dodgers, 10-6. It was the sixth straight win for the Redlegs and the fourth straight defeat for the stumbling world champions.

A total of 41 players saw action as the St. Louis Cardinals beat the Pittsburgh Pirates, 10-9 in a 10-inning game. Stan Musial hit his second grand slam of the season for the Redbirds, who went back into first place.

Frank Lary's three-hitter led the Detroit Tigers to an 8-1 decision over the New York Yankees and Tom Brewer turned in a three-hitter as the Boston Red Sox defeated the Kansas City Athletics, 2-0, in the only American League games.

18 May Start in Wide-Open Run of Roses

Actual Field May Not Be Known Until Scratch Time

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—The most wide-open Kentucky Derby in years may result in the names of 18 horses passing through the box today when entries for Saturday's running of the classic are closed.

The size of the starting field has fluctuated all week. Trainers have hemmed and hawed about whether they actually would name their colts for the 32nd and richest running of the Derby at a fee of $250 each. It will cost another $1,250 to start.

The actual starting field for the mile and one-quarter golden gallop may not know until final scratch time, 45 minutes before the 5:30 p.m. EDT post time Saturday.

The trainers of Needles, Fabius, Pintor Lea, Career Boy, Head Man, Countermaid, Terrang, Count Chic, Reaping Right, High King, Besomer, Jean Baptiste, Black Emperor, Ben A. Jones, Invalidate, No Regrets, Come On Red, and King O'Swords said they planned to name their horses.

It was certain not all would start. Syl Veitch, who trains Career Boy and Head Man for C. V. Whitney, said Career Boy would not go in the mud. But Come On Red will start only if the track is muddy.

Favor Middlecoff in Texan Open

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—Cary Middlecoff, who's compiled the season's largest money packet among the golf pros by finishing "up close," led the 54-player field into the opening round of the $25,000 Colonial National Invitation Tournament today as the favorite.

The tall Tennessee turned Texan was the 8-5 choice over four-times Colonial champion Ben Hogan even before the rains came this week to turn the usually plush 7,100-yard Colonial course into a spongy layout of golfing horrors.

AMATEUR ATHLETICS IN U.S. PUT ON SPOT BY AAU CLAIMS MASTERS

By HAL WOOD

United Press Sports Writer

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The combination of a general breakdown in morals and the tightening of restrictions have put amateur athletics on the spot in United States, AAU Masters, graduate manager of athletics at Stanford University, said today.

"There is absolutely no connection between the NCAA and the AAU violations crack-down," said Masters. "But there appears to be a general let-down in morals in college athletics and, along with the tightening of rules, amateur sports are getting a bad name."

MASTERS WAS POINTING to the NCAA crack-down on Kansas, Texas A. & M., and Mississippi College; to the Big Ten's Rose Bowl ban on Ohio State; and to the AAU's trouble with Wes Santee and ban on William and Mary.

"And it is possible that the Pacific Coast Conference may come up with a few bans and or fines of its own this weekend when it meets in San Francisco," Masters pointed out.

University of Washington and UCLA have been under fire in recent months for over-the-scale pay to athletes and Commissioner Victor P. Schmidt has conducted an investigation that may result in direct action against these two schools.

Eldridge Calls for Industry with Controls

DESERT HOT SPRINGS—The tax problems caused by the phenom- al population growth in Riverside County will have to be met by bringing in a lot of "compatible" industry, Fred Eldridge, rancher, former president of the Riverside County Farm Bureau and Republi- can candidate for Congress, stated in a speech before the Rotary Club here.

"At the same time," he con- tinued, "we must be foresighted and prudent in the use of zoning and air pollution regulations in order that we will not change the essential character of many of our localities, especially in the resort areas."

ELDRIDGE POINTED out that one of our major problems in Riverside county, which he said is now the fastest growing county in California in terms of population, is the problem of schools.

"From 1950-1955 elementary school registration in Riverside county increased 47 per cent, the candidate for Congress remarked, "as compared to an increase of only 8.3 per cent in the 14 southern counties. Of course, we have to build the schools and classrooms to house these children. We have no alternative."

"HOWEVER," HE continued, "the property tax load is becoming so heavy that in some districts citizens are refusing either to in- crease tax rates or vote bonds. Under these circumstances we have no choice but to broaden our tax base in order that we may increase tax revenues without sub- stantially increasing tax rates."

"You have here," he continued, "one of the great desert resort areas of the nation. You host per- haps 300,000 visitors per year who come here spending on an average $25 per day because they love the climate, the desert beauty, the pure air and the hospitality. Let's keep these little villages essential- ly like they are," Eldridge con- cluded, "Encourage them to grow, but try to keep them growing along the same basic lines they have been following in the past. Nobody can stop this growth, but intelligent people of civic re- sponsibility can handle the growth so that we can live with it."

Arthur S. Sullivan, who wrote the music for the Gilbert and Sul- livan light operas, was born in 1842 and died in 1900.

Cathedral City

Students of Cathedral City School this year have been carrying on a successful banking program, with the cooperation and assistance of the local branch of the Citizens Bank.

Last November, the children and their parents were advised that each child could open a savings account at school. Deposits would be accepted in 5 cent denomina- tions. Students from the sixth grade were selected to serve as tellers and were instructed by the bank in the counting of money, keeping of records, and other fundamentals relative to banking and thrift.

When a youngster made a de- posit, he gave his name to a teller, who located the saving passbook (which is kept at the school but is open for inspection by the parents at all times) and wrote in the amount deposited.

The second teller verified the amount of cash received for the day.

A savings program does not in- terfere with their school day since the bank hours are from 8:15 to 9 a.m. every Tuesday morning. A display card in the room reminds the children that Tuesday will be bank day. The bank picks up, and posts the deposits to their per- manent records, at the same time carrying forward the balance on the student's passbook, which is returned to the school.

Nearly one third of the students in the school take advantage of the program and an average of 50 per cent of these students deposit each week.

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Aitchison were Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Clarke of Inglewood.

Drama Workshop Guild to Present Children's Play

The Drama Workshop Guild children's theatre will present Oscar Wilde's "The Birthday of the Infanta" and a scene from Molnar's "Liliom" at El Paseo theatre Saturday, May 12, at 7:30 p.m. and Sunday, May 13, at the same time.

Edith Kopelson, well known in theater, radio and TV circles, organized the group six years ago. The children not only appear in their various stage roles but design the sets, costumes and act as stagehands.

Karen Burnham will play the part of the Infanta and Rickie Burnham will impersonate her young cousin, Count Tierra Nueva. Betsy Lehrfeld will take the part of the dwarf who brings so much merriment into the life of the lonely Infanta. Others in the cast are Paul Duncan, Karen Anderson, Sharon Steele, Mary Lou Nickerson and Christine Talman. Judy Canby, Leeann Howard and Linda Boyle appear in "Liliom" and intermission music will be presented by Edward Dominguez, young Indian prodigy and pupil of Alan Kopelson of the Village.

Both performances this year will be presented free to the public. Mayor Florian Boyd heads the sponsor list composed of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Tackett, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Farrell and Mesdames P. A. Staley and John Pike.

Style Show and Luncheon for Lions' Wives

Many of the Lions, attending the district convention here this coming weekend, will be accompanied by their wives and special plans are being made to entertain the women.

On Saturday there will be a luncheon style show at Chi Chi's Starlite Room, which will be presided over by Mrs. Eugene Theriault, wife of the president of the Palm Springs Lions Club.

The show will present fashions from the Beachcomber shops and Casual-Aire, with Bob Morris as commentator. Don Brown will sing, accompanied by Lois Lux, who will also play the background music for the show.

Tickets for the luncheon may be obtained from the Chamber of Commerce or at the door. The luncheon is at 12 o'clock.

Egg and Pimento Top Vegetables

Green beans, top eating even when simply cooked, also can take to fancy dress.

This suggestion comes from packers for the Blue Lake variety—the stringless bean grown primarily in Oregon and Washington and developed especially for canning.

You will need one can of the Blue Lakes, 2 tablespoons of melted butter or margarine, 1 hard cooked egg, 1 small can of pimentos, salt and pepper. Drain liquid from the beans into a saucepan and boil, uncovered, for about 8 minutes to reduce the amount. Add the beans, cover and simmer until heated through. Turn the beans into a serving dish, sieve the egg, yolk and put in the center of the dish. Cut the white into fine pieces, slice the pimentos into strips, and use both as garnish.

Every foot of exploratory hole drilled last year cost oil men an average of $24.30.

Soroptimists Sell Tickets for Benefit

Tickets are now being sold by members of Soroptimists International of Palm Springs for the Scholarship Benefit Show at Plaza Theater, Monday, May 21, according to Wynne Hammond, president. The moving picture, "Ulysses," with Kirk Douglas starring, will be shown at 6 p.m. and again at 9:30 p.m. At 8 p.m. Trixie Jarrett will present her class of 50 dance students in a revue including a Ballet in Three Moods and La Fiesta Mexicana. Authentic costumes from six different states in Mexico will be worn in the Mexican Fiesta number.

Dr. and Mrs. Harold Friedman of Denver have been vacationing here at the Palm Springs Biltmore.

Sorority Celebrates Founding

Twenty-five years of progress was celebrated by members of Beta Sigma Phi at a Founder's Day Banquet, held at the Ranch Club Monday evening. The impressive ceremony was conducted by Mrs. Eugene Read, who acted as the toastmistress for the evening. Dr. Irma Glen delivered the invocation and was later installed as sponsor for the Palm Springs chapter by the president, Mrs. Keith Herbert.

Mina Scheffler, in an interesting presentation told of the 25 years of achievement in Beta Sigma Phi. Other members participating in the program were Mesdames Frank Sorensen, John Dill, Margaret Hodgkinson and Bessie Reese.

Mrs. James Scott presented her pupils Ardell Ford, Barbara Finerman and Marianne Williams in an exhibition of Hawaiian dancing. The attractive tables and favors were prepared by Mesdames Eugene Read and David Watt.

A surprise conclusion of the evening's festivities was arranged by Lorraine Harper and Sue MacKenzie who with the help of Lyle Smith and Eunice Crooke, presented a clever skit depicting the sorority's 25 years of progress.

Honeymooners to Build Here

Mr. and Mrs. Nikolai von Kaesborg, who have been honeymooning here at the Tahitian Hotel, left Tuesday, but will be coming back frequently to supervise the building of their new home near El Mirador on Vereda Sur at Asher Drive. Mrs. von Kaesborg is the former Madelon Kischel Miller, of Brentwood, and he is a retired insurance company executive, with a home in Redlands. The bride is well known in Palm Springs where she has been a frequent visitor.

The two were married April 21 in the bridal suite of The Sands hotel in Las Vegas.

AAUW Plans Spring Party and Installation

The American Association of University Women will hold their Spring Party in the garden of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Summit, 210 Crestview, on Tuesday evening at 6:15. This will be a potluck, with husbands invited to attend, according to Mrs. Robert Schinabel, who is hostess chairman for the party.

New officers will be installed during the evening, with Mrs. Len D. Owens succeeding Mrs. Jerry Bunker in the presidency.

A lot of people have a Sweet Tooth but there was a fellow grow up named Floyd R. Boone who was the only kid I ever heard of with a Sour Tooth. Floyd had a terrible craving for stuff like Dil Pickles and Lemons. When other kids would head for the drug store to get sodas or sundaes Floyd would go to the grocery store and get himself a couple green apples and a pint of Vinegar. Anything son he liked. He always kept a ripe persimmon in his pocket just for emergencies, and as you probably guessed Floyd never considered an "odd ball" by the name of us kids. Especially the girls. They refused to get within 20 feet of him because he was always picking up.

Perilous Hunt for Mines Precedes Hunt for Oil in Egypt's El Alamein

CAIRO (AP)—The world's most extensive search for oil is taking place in the Egyptian desert over one of the most famous battlefields of World War II—El Alamein. It is a dangerous search because one false step means sudden death. There are still nearly 6,000,000 landmines, boobytraps and unexploded shells littering the area where Britain's "Desert Rats" and Rommel's Afrika Korps fought.

But underneath could be one of the world's richest oil fields. Its discovery would change the economic face of Egypt and drastically affect her policy toward both Russia and the Western world.

THE SEARCH is being conducted by the American-owned Sahara Petroleum Co., representing four of the biggest United States oil concerns—the Continental Oil Co., the Ohio Oil Co., Cities Service Company and the Richfield Oil Corporation.

Already they have ploughed nearly $20,000,000 into an exploration which extends over 90,000 square miles from the Nile to Libya. No oil has been found yet but research has confirmed the presence of rock formations which could contain oil deposits comparable to the other great Mideast fields.

The search was described by one company official as the "most intensive ever carried out in the history of oil." There are 12 ground parties in the field and complete aerial surveys have been made.

What makes it unique is that every foot of land has first to be cleared of mines laid in a crazy jigsaw pattern by British, Germans and Italians. As one engineer put it, "You play out in that desert as though you were in a nest of rattlesnakes."

AROUND EL ALAMEIN alone there thousands of war dead lie in two giant cemeteries beside the desert road there are 900,000 unexploded mines. Thousands more surround such battlefields at Sidi Barrani and Mersa Matruh—every one of them still deadly after 15 years beneath the desert sands.

The mine clearing is being conducted by a crack team of American demolition experts who learned their trade from Germany to Guadalcanal. They already have destroyed 80,000 tons of mines and shells in a year.

The area cleared represents a 20-foot wide path 3,750 miles long—more than the distance across the United States.

"So far we have not had any casualties," the engineer said. "But it's a job where you can't afford to get careless."

"At first we used to lift the mines by hand but booby traps and uncertain effects of age and weather made that too dangerous. Now we blow them up with dynamite as we find them."

THE CHANCE of discovering oil makes the risks worthwhile since it could completely change Egypt's rickety economy and provide Premier Gamal Abdel Nasser with the money he needs for such projects as the giant Aswan Dam.

It would also make him independent of both East and West and confirm Egypt's leadership of the Arab world.

While his armies face Israel in Egypt's eastern desert, the real solution of his problems may be buried beneath the old battlefields where thousands already have died.

Connecticut Has Effective Way to Curb Speed

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP)—When you drive into Connecticut a highway sign warns: "Don't speed. Conviction means loss of license." Connecticut isn't kidding. For three months motorists in this state have been experiencing an unusual crackdown on highway speeding.

Traffic judges are under threat of losing their jobs if they "fix" speeding tickets.

Any motorist convicted of speeding gets his driving license suspended—30 days for first offenders, 60 days for repeaters.

GOV. ABRAHAM Ribicoff ordered the unprecedented crackdown three months ago and the first returns are just in. During the three months, there were 10 less traffic deaths than during the corresponding period of 1955.

"This is highly gratifying," Ribicoff said, "but we still have a long way to go." The accident statistics also show that of the 19 fatalities that did occur last month 16 were blamed on speeding.

The governor says the campaign will go on indefinitely. "When drivers realize we mean business and start obeying the traffic laws the number of accidents will continue to drop," he says. "It's ironic that drivers won't slow down to save their lives but they will slow to save their licenses."

Ribicoff ordered police and judges to lower the boom on speeders when Connecticut, winner of many national safety awards in the past, came up with a total of 320 highway deaths in 1955, an increase of 78 over the previous year.

STATE POLICE Commissioner John C. Kelly calls it "the most effective crackdown I've seen in my 35 years as a policeman. You can look at traffic anywhere and tell it's moving slower."

Ribicoff, in discussing his war on speeding, tries to make two things clear. First, judges haven't been told to find everyone guilty. "What I was concerned about was the widespread dismissal of warrants. Too many cases were being thrown out."

His second concern is seeing that Connecticut doesn't get a reputation as a "speed trap." The truth is, he said, the campaign has resulted in fewer arrests for speeding. The motorists themselves are taking it easier.

Not everyone is happy with the governor's program. "You just lost one vote," one motorist wrote Ribicoff. "You're a lousy guy," another wrote, "if you don't do favors you won't be governor long."

Some motorists praise his idea. "I used to find myself driving hell-bent for election all the time," a traveling businessman said. "Now for the first time I realize what Connecticut looks like—I never saw it before because of the blur."

It's Wiser, It Seems to be a Hog

The cow was still going strong after one beer, a bottle of sake and three glasses of sweet potato alcohol. The hog went quietly to sleep.

House Begins Crucial Vote on Compromise Farm Bill

By UNITED PRESS
WASHINGTON — The House today rejected President Eisenhower's request to make "advance payments" to farmers this year under the proposed $1.2 billion soil bank.

WASHINGTON — The House began voting on the new Democratic farm bill today by shouting approval of a price support boost for growers of four feed grains.

Members also voted for a provision backing up the administration's unprecedented action in extending price supports this year to commercial corn growers who overplant their allotments.

The initial votes were part of a compromise plan worked out by Democratic and Republican farm leaders to ward off a floor fight on price supports.

Biggest clash loomed over the administration's request for authority to make advance payments this year under the Republican-sponsored $1.2 billion soil bank program which is the heart of the new bill.

Other congressional news:

TRANSPORTATION — A spokesman for inland waterways carriers said an administration-sponsored bill that would permit greater freedom for transportation industries in setting their own rates would give railroads power to wipe out competitors.

INFLUENCE — The president of the Air Transport Association of America, Stuart G. Tipton, denied that he tried to influence a Civil Aeronautics Board member into casting the deciding vote against an investigation of airline passenger fare rates.

FOREIGN AID: Sen. Harry F. Byrd (D-Va.) said the administration will have $11.5 billion available to spend on foreign aid if Congress votes the $4.9 billion requested for the coming fiscal year. Byrd, a leading economy advocate, said the aid program already has $6.6 billion in unexpended balances from appropriations of previous years.

REFUGEES: The Senate internal security subcommittee summoned refugees from Bulgaria and Romania. Subcommittee counsel Robert Morris said they will tell how they have been pressured by Communist agents to return behind the Iron Curtain.

APPROPRIATIONS: The House passed by voice vote and sent to the Senate a $1.4 billion bill for operation of the Commerce Department and related agencies for the next fiscal year. The bill includes a record $775 million for federal highway aid.

HOUSING: Rep. Olin E. Teague (D-Tex.), chairman of the House Veterans Committee, introduced a bill calling for sharp cuts in down payments on all government insured home mortgages.

It also would eliminate the present veterans administration home mortgage guarantee program begun 11 years ago.

All citizens—veterans and non-veterans alike—would become eligible for the liberalized terms for buying homes.

Wallet Reported Lost
Loss of a wallet containing $2, identification cards and driver's license was reported to police today by John Andreas.

Snows Sweep North; Rains Pound South

By UNITED PRESS
The weather dealt wintry snows to the North and pounding rains to the South today.

A full blown storm raged over Montana. Lewiston had four inches of new snow and more snow spread eastward into the Dakotas. It was 24 degrees at Cut Bank, Mont., and well below freezing elsewhere in the area.

In the South, skies cleared over Texas in the wake of four days of flooding rains which killed at least six persons.

The Lone Star State felt the last lash of the storm yesterday in 100 mile per hour winds which hit the Houston-Galveston area, ripping away a warehouse roof and rolling a freight car several hundred feet down a siding.

Although flash floods fell back, the weather bureau warned that the Sabine River in East Texas may hit flood stage tomorrow. It said livestock should be moved out of the river's lowlands.

Reds Top U.S. in Biggest Jets by 100 to 78

WASHINGTON — Russia has more than 100 intercontinental jet bombers compared with America's 78 and it produced them in much less time, authoritative military information showed today.

A comparison of production progress was made possible when the Pentagon broke a strict rule and allowed Gen. Curtis E. LeMay to tell Senate investigators in public how many B52 hydrogen bombers the Air Force has. The United Press obtained the American estimate of Russian production from competent sources.

Under usual security procedures, military services do not reveal their exact numbers of planes of a given model. And regulations bar contractors from disclosing "production schedules . . . or rates of delivery."

State Discloses $11,300,000,000 Future Water Development Plan

SACRAMENTO — A blueprint for integrated, step-by-step $11.3 billion development of California's water resources to meet the state's present and future needs has been released by the state Water Resources Board.

The plan of "unprecedented scope and magnitude" calls for creation of an $8.6 billion aqueduct system running 700 miles from the Oregon to the Mexican border to funnel California's ample, but badly distributed waters to the areas of need.

This aqueduct, longer than the River Rhine, and fed by 33 new major reservoirs, would transport 21.5 million acre-feet of water from Northern California to areas of deficiency.

That is more water than contained in all of Lake Tahoe and enough to cover the entire area of the state two and a half inches deep.

Some 240 proposed additional reservoirs were put forward to furnish nearly 14 million acre-feet of water a year to augment local supplies throughout the state.

The report, in preparation since 1947 and still subject to change, calls the California water plan "a flexible pattern for the future into which specific projects may be in-

Global Missile Plant in State Starts in Month

WASHINGTON — Construction of a plant for "development and production" of the intercontinental ballistic missile will begin this month.

The Air Force announced yesterday General Dynamics Corp. will build the $40 million plant at Sorrento Canyon, Calif., north of San Diego. It is expected to be in full operation by the fall of 1957.

The Air Force has used the word "production" for the first time in speaking of the awesome ICBM, sometimes called the "ultimate weapon." The announcement was regarded as an indication the missile may be closer to reality than had been expected.

The Convair Division of General Dynamics is working on the so-called Atlas missile, designed to travel 5000 miles at speeds up to 15,000 miles an hour.

Janitor Tries Easy Way to Ease Work

MILWAUKEE, Wis., — Police said Clement K. Zeller, 69, told them he set fire to the apartment building where he'd been a janitor for 15 years because "The work was getting to be too much for me."

But he warned the nation's physicians and health officers that if the new goal is to be reached, they must start planning immediately to expand their vaccination programs and to continue them straight through the polio season. Most communities called off their inoculation programs during the summer last year because of the fear of some medical authorities that injections during the polio season might provoke paralysis in some children who already had been exposed to the disease.

Rocket Flight to Space Fizzles at 10,000 Feet

WHITE SANDS PROVING GROUNDS, N.M. — The failure of an oxidizer to trigger the powerful motor of the Navy's Aerobee-Hi rocket was blamed today for the rocket's failure to blast 185 miles into the ionosphere. Instead, it fizzled out at 10,000 feet and crashed to earth.

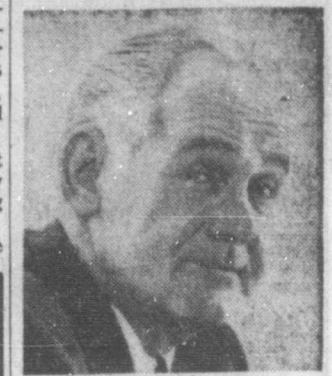

Navy officers said privately that they were bitterly disappointed by the fiasco, which followed a big advance buildup.

The occasion was a test late

Wednesday at which the first production model of the Aerobee was fired at White Sands. The test had been put off once because of high winds.

The Navy will try again Tuesday.

New way to ease tensions

Many professional people are discovering a relaxing new hobby in the Hammond Chord Organ, the instrument anyone can play without taking lessons.

As one busy man said, "You can come in from work tired and worried, sit down and play a while, and feel yourself ease up."

You'll play a tune in 30 minutes on the Hammond Chord Organ. You needn't take lessons or know music. One finger plays the melody. One finger adds rich, full chords.

If you don't read notes, you use Picture Music that anyone can follow. In a few weeks, you'll be playing all sorts of selections—popular, religious, even classical!
